

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Mario F Page,

Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,

Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13012

Order

Motion to Withdraw as Attorney

Date of Order: 4/24/2019

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-12-02363CI, 3PA-05-01308CR

The Appellant, Mario Page, recently filed a motion requesting that he be allowed to represent himself in this appeal, and his attorney, Owen Shortell, filed a motion asking to withdraw. This Court remanded the case to the superior for a representation hearing. At that hearing, the superior court found that Mr. Page entered a knowing and intelligent waiver of the right to counsel, and that he is capable of representing himself on appeal. For this reason, Mr. Page's motion that he be allowed to represent himself and Mr. Shortell's motion to withdraw are both GRANTED.

Before Mr. Page moved to represent himself, he filed a pro se opening brief. Mr. Page's opening brief and the accompanying excerpt are accepted as filed, and will be printed at public expense. The Appellate Clerk's Office shall notify the Appellee of the due date for its brief.

Mr. Page also filed a motion asking this Court to prepare and to complete the record, and to provide him with certain documents from the record. But the appellate record in this case is already prepared and an electronic copy is available on compact disc. The Appellate Clerk's Office is directed to provide Mr. Page with a compact disc containing the electronic appellate record. Mr. Page, in making this request, also asked this Court to provide him with any other documents that might be "necessary for deciding” this appeal. But because Mr. Page will have a copy of the entire electronic appellate record, and because this Court may only rely on the appellate record when resolving an appeal, this request is DENIED.
